Maximizing Employee Engagement and Retention

This highly engaging training will:

- Explore what a highly committed worker looks like in the human services.
- Examine the role of management behind employee commitment.
- Review how management staff at all levels can create the environment to encourage employee performance and retention.
- Provide strategies and tools to maximize employee engagement and retention.

Human service organizations continue to experience high levels of staff turnover. Turnover often happens in the most critical positions (front line staff), which cripples an agency's ability to adequately meet client needs and can contribute to reduced performance and commitment for the ones that remain.

This is a training you will not want to miss.

This is ideal for management staff at all levels.

Tim Nolan, Ed.D. has personally worked with over 10,000 human service management staff across the country and has worked with agencies of all sizes to help them maximize client care and employee commitment, performance, and retention.

He is also the author of The Essential Handbook for Highly Effective Human Service Managers and creator of the 12-month Highly Effective Human Service Managers Program (which 19 agencies are using).
